

HARRIS Biography/Links

HARRIS is a multi-instrumental singer-songwriter from Wexford, Ireland. HARRIS started his music career as a lead guitarist in the band Tuesday at Six. Since he was 16 HARRIS has honed his songwriting craft and has gone on to perform countless gigs on the Dublin open-mic and acoustic showcase circuit while opening for renowned Irish musicians such as John Blek and Paul Brady. His debut single The Fire Lights Itself was released in January of 2023. In May of 2023 HARRIS released his follow-up single, Strange Behaviours. They were both recorded with friend, collaborator and producer John Redmond in Blackdog Studios. The musical style of HARRIS can be described as simple, honest and emotive. The way in which he presents his songs differs depending on the needs of each song. Some are full scale swirling atmospheric delights of synth, drums and guitars. While some are just acoustic and vocals. Both encapsulate the emotion that HARRIS is able to convey in his music.
